Health and Safety Representative Training - One Day Refresher Course (A SafeWork NSW Course)

Course Purpose:

This course will refresh the information and skills attained in the initial five day training course and assist HSRs and Deputy HSRs to carry out their role and functions as Health and Safety Representatives (HSR) under the WHS Act 2011 and WHS Regulation 2017.

Course Objectives:

This course will refresh the information and skills attained under the initial five day training course and assist HSRs to carry out their role and functions under the WHS legislation including:

- an understanding of the Work Health and Safety (WHS) legislation
- an understanding of how it applies to their role as elected Health and Safety Representatives (HSR)
- the additional knowledge and skills regarding their powers under the WHS legislation to issue Provisional Improvement Notices (PINs) and direct unsafe work to cease.

The course is intended to assist HSRs and deputy HSRs understand their roles and functions as to how the WHS legislation will influence health and safety outcomes in their workplace. The course aims to inform participants of the knowledge and skills necessary to fulfil their role as Health and Safety Representatives (HSR).

Who Should Do the Course?

The training is for all elected HSRs under the WHS Act who have previously completed the approved initial five day HSR training course.

Trainer All trainers meet the qualification and experience requirements set out by SafeWork NSW for delivering this training including how to deliver in RTCD format.

Participants must present their original HSR certificate as evidence that they meet this prerequisite.
